

Battcon Panel Member Biography Form Instructions

Instructions for panel, workshop, seminar and committee members.

Panel, workshop, seminar, and committee members may use this form to submit a biography for publication in the Battcon conference program guide. Fill in the fields below with your contact details and biographical information, save the file, then email as a file attachment to Jack Mack at: jack.mack@emerson.com. Please note Battcon Biography in the subject line.

Name, Job Title and Company: Your name, job title and company affiliation.

Email address and Telephone: Include this so Battcon can contact you. It will not be published. It will, however, be shared with other panel members. Refer also to the Public Contact Info section below.

Select to indicate panel, workshop, seminar or Battcon Technical Committee member.

Preferred name for literature and introduction: For example, Jack for John or Sue for Susan. If you want your everyday first name or nickname used in the guide and introduction, type it here.

Public Contact Information (optional): You may have contact details published within the Biography section of the Program Guide. This contact info will not appear in the list on the Web site page. If you want to share an email address, Web address, company name, and/or telephone number, type it here. Because of space limitations, we cannot print street addresses.

Biographical Information for your introduction and printed literature. In 75 words or less, describe who you are. Ideas to get you started: tell what you do, your job title, company, years in the industry, professional affiliations, accomplishments, inventions, education. Battcon reserves the right to edit the text. No personal contact information (email address or telephone number) will be published unless you indicated (in Public Contact Information above) to do so. If you presented in previous years, we can use your earlier biography if you wish.

I look forward to meeting you at Battcon!
