Battcon Panel Member Biography Form Instructions

As a panel member, you should use this form to submit your brief biography for publication in the Battcon conference program guide. Fill in the fields below on the screen, save the file, then email as a file attachment to Jack Mack at Jack.Mack@alber.com. Please note Battcon Biography in the subject line.

Name, Job Title and Company: Your name, job title and company affiliation.

Email address and Telephone: You must include this so Battcon can contact you. It will not be published. It will, however, be shared with other panel members unless you indicate "DO NOT SHARE" after your email address.

Select to indicate panel member, panel leader, or Battcon Technical Committee member.

Preferred name for literature and introduction: For example, Jack for John or Sue for Suzanne. If you want your everyday first name or nickname used in the guide and introduction, enter it here.

Biographical Information for your introduction and printed literature. In 75 words or less, describe who you are. Ideas to get you started: tell what you do, your title, company, years in the industry, professional affiliations, accomplishments, inventions, education. Battcon reserves the right to edit the text. No personal contact information (email address or telephone number) will be published. If you presented in previous years, we can use your earlier biography if you wish.

Email this biography form to: Jack.Mack@alber.com. Please note Battcon Biography in the subject line. Feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Looking forward to meeting you at Battcon!
